An Artificial Night by Seanan McGuire | Audiobook ...

This is the third of the October Daye series, which means I'm... checks trademark... about seven years behind so far. October Daye is a changeling (half fae and half human). I read the first book, Rosemary and Rue, because it was a gift from my cousin and she said that Toby was an inspiration to her. The first book was a very good murder mystery with a lot of world building and things to learn.

An Artificial Night by Seanan McGuire - kirabug's idea files

An Artificial Night is the third part in the October Daye-series, and my personal favorite so far. The atmosphere of the previous two books still remains, but the setting is much more fantastical this time around. Children – both human and fae – goes missing and our reluctant hero Toby promises to bring them back.
