Lessons in Etiquette is the sequel to Schooled in Magic, which I hope you will remember. Currently, it can be found in this forum in draft form (without some of the changes I have incorporated after it was edited.) I plan to start writing at full speed on Monday 24th, assuming all goes according to plan.

Lessons in Etiquette is a great second installment in the series and even better than the first book. I admit to I was a bit worried that the books would fall into a formula similar to say.. Harry Potter series. One book = One school year with most events confined to the magical school. It was a great relief when this did not take place.
